

Languages

How do we know our children are ready for Secondary School?

They...

are confident in using a bilingual dictionary and can use them to find the gender and plural forms.

Can understand simple texts in French and German

Understands how to use cognates and pictures to help them find the meaning of unknown words

Can ask and answer simple questions about themselves

Understands how the gender of a word affects adjective endings and pronouns.